German Version of Bio

Born in Hannover and raised in Hamburg, Germany, Riebana Sachs is fluent in German and has an acute understanding of German and European business culture, which is a tremendous asset to the German and Austrian companies we represent. Our clients appreciate her responsiveness, business oriented advice and unique perspective, combining her expertise in corporate and employment law.

Riebana's corporate practice focuses on national and international corporate matters, including corporate restructuring and due diligence for mergers and acquisition of cross-border, as well as domestic transactions. In addition, Riebana advises our international clients on forming, maintaining and dissolving business entities in the United States.

As a member of the employment group, Riebana advises clients on various employment matters and compliance issues. She regularly counsels companies on employee handbooks, employment agreements, severance agreements, and COVID-19 policies. Riebana is also experienced in conducting workplace investigations regarding sexual harassment. She serves an active member of the firm's Diversity & Inclusion Committee.

Prior to joining Masuda Funai, Riebana served as a prosecutor for the Cook County State's Attorney's Office in Chicago, Illinois and surrounding suburbs.
