

News & Types: News

Bob White Led NAFSA New Member Orientation

10/8/2020

By: Bob White

On Wednesday, October 7, 2020, Bob White, Principal of Masuda Funai's Immigration Practice Group, led the National Association of International Educators' (NAFSA's) New Member Orientation Ring Call. NAFSA hosts these calls once a quarter to introduce new members to the Membership Engagement Committee. As a member of the Committee, Bob White introduced himself and the rest of the Committee to the new members and explained the many offerings available through a NAFSA membership. There are normally about 100 new members who attend these calls.

NAFSA: Association of International Educators is the world's largest nonprofit association dedicated to international education and exchange. NAFSA's 10,000 members are located at more than 3,500 institutions worldwide, in over 150 countries. NAFSA is the largest and most comprehensive association of professionals committed to advancing international higher education. Based in the United States, NAFSA provides programs, products, services, and a physical and virtual meeting space for the worldwide community of international educators. The association provides leadership to its varied constituencies through establishing principles of good practice and providing professional development opportunities. NAFSA encourages networking among professionals, convenes conferences and collaborative dialogues, and promotes research and knowledge creation to strengthen and serve the field.