

News & Types: News

Monika Oyama Co-Presenting at Virtual Digima Event

1/13/2021

On January 22, 2021, Monika R. Oyama, Principal in Masuda Funai's Corporate, Finance and Acquisitions Practice Group, will be co-presenting on the topic of "Overseas Businesses under the U.S. New Administration" sponsored by Digima. The virtual session will include an online panel discussion followed by Q&A. The facilitator will be Mr. Kei Washizawa (Chief Editor, Digima) and other panelists include: Jun Okubo (Principal, CDH, PC.), Tak O'Haru (President, White Cube, LLC) and Shinichiro Kishioka (President, ITA, Inc.). Japanese companies and entrepreneurs considering expanding business to overseas or wishing to obtain updates on the U.S. market should consider attending this event. For more information or to register (30 people max capacity), click here. This event is in Japanese only.

Digima was established in 2009 and provides support services related to overseas businesses, such as services specializing in supporting the overseas expansion of Japanese companies, overseas business recruitment, media management, and overseas outsourcing support services.