

News & Types: News

Monika Oyama Co-Presenting at Virtual JETRO Chicago Event

1/13/2021

On February 2, 2021, Monika R. Oyama, Principal in Masuda Funai's Corporate, Finance and Acquisitions Practice Group, will be co-presenting on the topic of "U.S. Businesses under the Pandemic" sponsored by JETRO Chicago. The virtual session will include an online panel discussion followed by Q&A. The facilitator will be Mr. Tomofumi Nishizawa (Executive Director, JETRO Chicago) and other panelists include: Jun Okubo (Principal, CDH, PC.), Tak O'Haru (President, White Cube, LLC), Shinichiro Kishioka (President, ITA, Inc.). Japanese affiliated companies located in the U.S. as well as their parent companies in Japan should consider attending this event. For more information or to register (1,000 people max capacity), click here. This event is in Japanese only.

JETRO is a non-profit organization founded in 2003 that supports the development of sales channels and the establishment of bases for small- and medium-sized Japanese enterprises (SMEs) in overseas markets. JETRO facilitates business negotiations (such as at overseas trade fairs), the utilization of cross-border e-commerce, the employment of overseas business personnel, the development of frontier markets, and the use of intellectual property.