Schaumburg, IL 60173

Melissa Bryan is a dedicated paralegal in the firm's Immigration Group, supporting attorneys and clients with H-1B visa matters, including preparing filings, managing case documentation, and ensuring accurate submission of petitions.

Melissa plays a vital role in keeping clients informed about the status of their cases while providing essential support to attorneys throughout the petition process. Her prior experience as a Legal Assistant in the firm's Immigration Practice established a strong foundation that provided a smooth transition into her current Paralegal role.

She earned her bachelor's degree in history with a minor in Urban and Environmental Studies from Lake Forest College. Melissa is currently pursuing her Paralegal Certificate through Legal Studies courses at the College of Lake County, further enhancing her professional qualifications.
