Joshua Wilson is an associate in the Commercial, Competition & Trade and Corporate, Finance & Acquisitions practice groups. In his commercial practice, he drafts and reviews distribution agreements, terms and conditions of sale, and non-disclosure agreements. As a member of the corporate group, Joshua assists with corporate matters and transactions, including conducting due diligence.

Fluent in Japanese and Korean, he has the ability to communicate with many of our clients in their native language.

Joshua was a Summer Associate at the firm in 2022 and, during law school, he served as the Lead Articles Editor for the Business, Entrepreneurship & Tax Law Review. He also gained experience as a legal intern, focusing on international government relations and corporate matters, which involved legal research, cross-border data transfer reports, and contract analysis.
