Masuda, Funai, Eifert & Mitchell, Ltd. is pleased to announce that Kathleen Gaber has been appointed to the Alliott Group's North American Regional Advisory Committee. Alliott Group's Advisory Committee members act in an advisory and supportive capacity to members in their region and are the "eyes and ears," feeding back their views to the Worldwide Advisory Committee and Worldwide Board. Kathie's appointment enables her to contribute a wealth of industry knowledge from both a domestic and an international perspective and assist with implementing the alliance's strategic plans across the North American region. Kathie is also a member of Alliott Group's Global Mobility Services, a global alliance of 160 firms in 60 countries, and advises on changes to immigration regulations and procedures being implemented by the current U.S. Administration. Kathie is a Principal and Co-Chair of Masuda Funai's Immigration Practice Group with more than three decades of experience and is a frequent speaker on immigration issues. She has been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America, Illinois Super Lawyers "Top Women Lawyers," and Leading Lawyers. Kathie is a Fellow of the American Bar Association and was selected to Crain's Custom Media's "2018 Chicago's Notable Women Lawyers."

Founded in 1979, and with 160 member firms in 70 countries, Alliott Group is an award-winning international association ("alliance") of independent accounting and law firms that need deeper levels of cross border resources to develop reputation, visibility and new business. Alliott Group provides services to help its member firms to position themselves as the "go to" firms in their local markets for businesses and private individuals with multi-market business interests.
