On Thursday, February 25, 2021, Bob White, Principal of Masuda Funai's Immigration Practice Group, co-paneled the National Association of International Educator's (NAFSA's) New Member Orientation. Other panelists included: Patrice Campbell, Senior International Officer at Millersville University of Pennsylvania and Kevin Timlin, Executive Director of International Education and Services at Southeast Missouri State University. NAFSA hosts these quarterly meetings to welcome new members, introduce them to the Member Engagement Committee and explain the many benefits and offerings available through a NAFSA membership. The Member Engagement Committee represents NAFSA members and serves as a conduit between the leadership of the association and those served by it.

NAFSA: Association of International Educators is the world's largest nonprofit association dedicated to international education and exchange. NAFSA's 10,000 members are located at more than 3,500 institutions worldwide, in over 150 countries. NAFSA is the largest and most comprehensive association of professionals committed to advancing international higher education. Based in the United States, NAFSA provides programs, products, services, and a physical and virtual meeting space for the worldwide community of international educators.
